

Safety regulations for the formal establishment of Local Neighbourhood Community Safety Fora has been deferred to allow LCSPs to be fully established and operational first," added the report.

"Therefore, there is currently no mechanism to establish a new local forum until the LCSP is in place and its working groups have been formed."

"I note the report," said Cllr Brady, "And I know we are waiting on nominations from the Minister, which are due to come in November, but what I would just like to ask, is, as this is all happening in November, if we could move along fairly quickly, just to note that Lucan doesn't have an active local forum and if we could get one established quite quickly thereafter."

Update

Cllr Liona O'Toole (Ind) spoke in support of the motion, followed by Cllr Joanna Tuffy (Lab).

Cllr Tuffy asked the manager for an update on what had happened to the motion passed in June that they were going to meet with Senior Gardai in the area, to ask if a meeting could be arranged between councillors and local community Gardai and was wondering if anything had happened on that.

"The sooner this can happen the better, so I fully support the motion," said Cllr Helen Farrell (Ind).

South Dublin County Council Manager Maria Nugent, explained that the new Local Community Safety Partnership was nearly in place.

"That will be in place by
