Privacy Statement for

Proposed Redevelopment of the Riverbank Arts Centre on Main Street, Newbridge, Co. Kildare along with ancillary works associated with the construction of same

Planning Ref. P82026.09

(Strategic Projects and Public Realm)

Who are we?

Kildare County Council (the Council) is the democratically elected unit of Local Government in County Kildare and is responsible for providing a range of services to meet the economic, social and cultural needs of the people of our County. In order to provide the most effective and targeted services to meet the needs of the citizens, communities and businesses of County Kildare we will be required to collect, process and use certain types of information about people and organisations. Depending on the service being offered, information sought may include 'personal data' as defined by the Data Protection Acts and the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and may relate to current, past and future service users; past, current and prospective employees; suppliers; and members of the public who may engage in communications with our staff. In addition, staff may be required, from time to time, to collect process and use certain types of personal data to comply with regulatory or legislative requirements or to carry out functions in the public interest.

Why do we have a Privacy Statement?

This privacy statement has been created to demonstrate the Council's commitment that personal data you may be required to supply to us is;

- Obtained lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner
- Obtained for only specified, identified and legitimate purposes
- Processed for purposes which we have identified or purposes compatible with the purposes that we have identified.
- Adequate, relevant and limited to what is necessary for purpose for which it was obtained
- Personal data collected and processed must be accurate and (where necessary) kept up to-date.
- Kept only for as long as is necessary for the purposes for which it was obtained.
- Processed in a manner that ensures the appropriate security of the personal data including protection against unauthorised or unlawful processing.

More detail is available in our Data Protection Policy Statement at <https://kildarecoco.ie/YourCouncil/GovernanceandCompliance/DataProtection/> or you can request a hard copy at 045 980 200.

Kildare County Council

What is the activity referred to in this Privacy Statement?

This statement refers to the processing of personnel data in respect to submissions made by members of the public for the Proposed Redevelopment of the Riverbank Arts Centre on Main Street, Newbridge, Co. Kildare

What is the basis for making the processing of this personal data lawful?

Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in Kildare County Council in accordance with Article 6(1) of the General Data Protection Regulation, 2016. Specifically, the lawful basis for the procedures is listed below:

- Planning & Development Act 2000 (as amended)
- Planning & Development Regulations 2001 (as amended) (Part 8)

Including third party personal data in submissions:

In cases where a person decides to submit the personal information of another person in their submission, they must:

- Notify that person that they are providing their personal information to the Council and obtain their permission; OR
- Provide that person with a copy of this Privacy Statement;

In addition, they must

- Promptly notify that person of any changes to this Privacy Statement that they are aware of.
- Ensure that, to the best of their knowledge, that the person's personal information is accurate and up to date, and promptly notify the Council when aware that it is incorrect.

Persons making a submission/observation should be aware that comments involving allegations of any kind against a named or otherwise identifiable person or organisation may be viewed as defamatory by the subject of the comments. Persons may be sued directly for any defamatory allegations in any submission/observation and should avoid making such allegations.

In the event of any potentially defamatory allegation giving rise to legal action against it, the Local Authority will seek indemnity from the person making the allegation.

What happens to my submission?

Submissions made either online or in hard copy are processed in the following manner. Submissions are assigned a reference number within the Strategic Projects and Public Realm (SPPR) department, in order to effectively manage the submission document and are added to an electronic system for processing of same. The submissions are considered by the Local Authority and by Consultants appointed by Kildare County Council.

In accordance with statutory requirements a report on any submissions or observations received is prepared for consideration by the elected representatives and contains a list of the persons or bodies from whom submissions were sought and who made submissions or observations, a summary of the issues arising from the submissions, and the response of the Council to those issues.

Comhairle Contae Chill Dara

Kildare County Council

The elected representatives must take into consideration the report on consultation before making a decision.

We require contact details

In order to communicate with you, you will be asked for contact details. You do not have to provide all contact details but providing more, such as email, phone, address, makes it easier to communicate.
