Litr Chumhdaigh

I, Melanie Young am objecting to the proposed draft development plan to reduce the number of people who will be allowed to build one off housing on their own family land.

What I would actually like to see is the doubling up of numbers.

Housing

Ábhair: housing

In a situation where there is a long lineage of family members who have resided on the land for generations, I feel that siblings and children part thereof should have the entitlement to build on said land if desired, especially in a time of a serious and significant housing crisis.
